

Tahoe Ridge Winery Receives Four Medals at The West Coast Wine Competition

(Genoa, Nev.) May 3, 2009: Four wines take medals at the West Coast Wine Competition was held April 24th - 26th at the Sonoma Mountain Village in Sonoma County, California.

Tahoe Ridge Winery entered five (5) wines in the competition and placed four (4) medals (80% return):

Wines Entered:

- 2006 Merlot, California - Bronze Medal
- 2006 Cabernet Sauvignon, California - Honorable Mention (No Medal)
- 2006 Reserve Petite Sirah, Teeslink Vineyard - Silver Medal
- 2006 Reserve Zinfandel, Soucie Vineyard - Bronze Medal
- 2007 Harvest Select Muscat Canelli, Dorn Vineyards - Bronze Medal

This brings Tahoe Ridge Winery's total medal count to 12 medals for the 2009 season (so far) which includes winning the prestigious: 2009 Governors Cup for our 2006 Reserve Barbera, Silvaspoon Vineyard

Tahoe Ridge Winery has now placed awards on its entire current vintage of Reserve and Harvest Select - Vineyard Designated Wines with several of these wines winning multiple awards.

I am extremely proud of the winemaking team, sales staff, customers, investors, managing board, suppliers and our distributor Southern Wine and Spirits of Nevada for our continue support. We are making and selling great wines and being recognized for our efforts by some of the top judging panels in the world of wine.

You are all part of something very big and it takes a little effort by each and every one of us to continue to build and grow this great new industry known as the: Nevada Wine and Grape Growing Industry.
