

NEW RNO AIR SERVICE ADDED BY AMERICAN AIRLINES TO DALLAS-FT. WORTH

Reno – May 13, 2009

At a time when airports across the nation are experiencing double digit loss of air service and 97 U.S. airports have suffered the loss of all commercial air service Reno-Tahoe International Airport will announce the addition of a third Reno (RNO) to Dallas-Ft. Worth (DFW) departure on American Airlines effective June 25 through August 25!! American Airlines has advised that they will add a new mid-afternoon, nonstop departure from RNO to DFW for the peak summer travel period.

- § The nonstop flight will operate five days a week (except Tuesdays and Wednesdays)
- § Departing RNO at 2:50 pm arriving DFW at 8:00 pm.
- § The return flight will depart DFW at 12:35 pm arriving RNO at 1:54 pm.
- § American will operate a 188 seat Boeing 757 aircraft.
- § The new flight offers excellent connection opportunities in DFW to AA's extensive domestic and international network which include the southeastern U.S. and Europe.

AA now offers a total of four daily departures from RNO:

- § 7:05 am departure to DFW
- § 11:50 am departure to DFW
- § 1:35 pm departure to ORD (Chicago O'Hare)
- § 2:50 pm departure to DFW
