

Tahoe Ridge Winery
Wins at San Diego International Wine Competition

(Carson City, Nev.) April 16, 2009: One Wine Entered - One Wine Won...

Tahoe Ridge Winery entered its Non Vintage Dated (NVD) Harvest Select Red Wine in the 2009 San Diego International Wine Competition in March 2009 and just received notice it won a Silver Medal.

This wine is a blend of 97% Zinfandel and 3% Petite Sirah from the Soucie Vineyard in Lodi, CA. The vineyard was well over 80+ years old at the time of harvest. The wine has intense flavors of Strawberry Jam, Dark Chocolate, Truffles, Clove and Liquorice. The wine retails for $32 per bottle out of the Tasting Room & Marketplace in Genoa, Nevada - Wine Club Members save 20% off of the retail price.

This is the second medal we have received from grapes harvested off of the Soucie Vineyard in Lodi. In March 2009, we won a Bronze Medal for the 2006 Reserve Zinfandel - Soucie Vineyard at the Grand Harvest Awards in California.

This brings Tahoe Ridge Winery's medal count for the 2009 season to a total of eight (8) so far:

- Nevada Governors Cup Award - Gold - 2006 Reserve Barbera - Silvaspoon Vineyard
- Grand Harvest Award - Bronze - 2006 Reserve Zinfandel - Soucie Vineyard
